Coloring Contest Winners Announced

ST. JOHN VALLEY - NorState Federal Credit Union is pleased to announce that McKenna Jandreau, age 7, of Fort Kent was the lucky recipient of a giant Christmas stocking because of her coloring entry during NorState's Holiday Coloring Contest.

Santa's elves delivered the stocking full of fun games, toys and teddy bears to NorState for their contest, so one lucky youth full of Christmas spirit would win. McKenna entered her coloring page for consideration, a traditional red & green rendition.

"Her buffalo plaid Christmas stocking in the artwork was unique and on point, added NorState's Executive Marketing Director Denise Duperré.

This caught the eye of many judges."

The contest was open to the public through December 21st, for youth ages 5 to 12, and over 149 entries were received at all NorState branches, some entries from artists as young as 3 years old.

Second place, a $25 Visa Gift Card went to Lucy Hartuigsen, age 12 of Madawaska (picture with her watercolor entry, her mom (right) and NorState's Executive Marketing Director, Denise Duperré).

Third place, a $10 Visa Gift Card, went to Ryker Greenier of St. David, for his use of 2 abstract colors.

Winners and Honorable Mentions are on display at the Madawaska branch office lobby bulletin boards until the New Year.

NorState FCU offers great youth account holder incentives such as free online games and financial literacy as well as account opening gifts. To learn more about Youth Saving Accounts at NorState, visit
